Luke 23:32-43 (NLT)

<sup>32</sup> Two others, both criminals, were led out to be executed with him. <sup>33</sup> When they came to a place called The Skull, they nailed him to the cross. And the criminals were also crucified—one on his right and one on his left.<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they don’t know what they are doing.” And the soldiers gambled for his clothes by throwing dice.

<sup>35</sup> The crowd watched and the leaders scoffed. “He saved others,” they said, “let him save himself if he is really God’s Messiah, the Chosen One.” <sup>36</sup> The soldiers mocked him, too, by offering him a drink of sour wine. <sup>37</sup> They called out to him, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!” <sup>38</sup> A sign was fastened above him with these words: “This is the King of the Jews.”<sup>39</sup> One of the criminals hanging beside him scoffed, “So you’re the Messiah, are you? Prove it by saving yourself—and us, too, while you’re at it!” <sup>40</sup> But the other criminal protested, “Don’t you fear God even when you have been sentenced to die? <sup>41</sup> We deserve to die for our crimes, but this man hasn’t done anything wrong.” <sup>42</sup> Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.” <sup>43</sup> And Jesus replied, “I assure you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

Vs. 32 – 38 The cross & the crowd

- The paradox of the cross: The instrument used to express total rejection and dehumanization was God’s instrument for worldwide human reconciliation.

Genesis: 50:20 You intended to harm me, but God intended it all for good. He brought me to this position so I could save the lives of many people.

- The result of Jesus’s death and resurrection is equal opportunity forgiveness.
- The cross is not transactional for Jesus, but the fullest expression of his heart for humanity.
- An essential element in unmasking Jesus is discovering genuine, amazement, awe, and adoration for Jesus Christ.

Vs. 39 – 43 The criminal’s conversion

- Repentance is a shifting of the heart away from Death and towards Life.
- The pathway to freedom is forgiveness.

*“To forgive is to set a prisoner free and discover that the prisoner was you.”
~ Lewis B. Smedes*

- It is more important that we forgive authentically than immediately.

A Viral Gospel:

- A major contributing factor to the virality of the Gospel, is its offer of individual worth and forgiveness to the lowest in society.

Luke 7:47 “I tell you, her sins—and they are many—have been forgiven, so she has shown me much love. But a person who is forgiven little shows only little love.”

- If we are forgiven of much, then in genuine gratitude, we love much; and love is contagious.
